Millions of U.S. Bombs Remain

“Fifty-four years after the My Lai Massacre, children in Quang Ngai are still at risk of death and dismemberment.”

—Ron Haeberle

Since the war's end in 1975, bombs left behind have killed or injured over 105,000 people in Vietnam, one-third of them children.

Since 2001, RENEW and its NGO partners have cleared 762,418 live explosives. There's much more to do!

With our help, RENEW can expand operations in Quang Ngai Province, where the My Lai massacre unfolded in 1968.
