

The Seattle Chapter of Veterans For Peace will award a

$500 Prize!

Student Essay Contest

*Waging Peace in Vietnam:
What it means to me and its lessons for today*

Photojournalist Nick Ut will select the winning essay. Fifty years ago, Ut took the Pulitzer Prize winning photograph of 9-year-old Kim Phuc Phan Thi, known as "The Napalm Girl." As impressive as the photograph itself, is Nick Ut immediately put down his camera and transported the young girl to a hospital, saving her life.

Essays of 500 to 650 words must relate to the exhibit Waging Peace in Vietnam: U.S. Soldiers and Veterans Who Opposed the War, on view from September 28 to October 28 at the ground floor lobby, North Allen Library, UW Seattle campus.

Submit essays to Michael Walstrom, Managing Director, UW's S.E. Asia Center, SEAC@UW.edu

Deadline: October 28, 2022

Waging Peace in Vietnam

www.WagingPeaceInVietnam.com

